Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities

On October 16, 2009, Apollo Medical Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”) completed a private placement pursuant to which the Company sold 50 Units of its securities to accredited investors. Each Unit comprised (i) one 10% senior subordinated callable promissory note, par value $25,000 (each, a “Note”); and (ii) one five-year warrant (each, a “Warrant”) to purchase 25,000 shares of the Company’s common stock (the “Common Stock”). The purchase price of a Unit was $25,000 resulting in gross proceeds of $1,250,000.

Interest is payable on the Notes at a rate of 10% per annum, compounded annually, and payable in arrears on July 31st and January 31st. The Notes mature and become due and payable on January 31, 2013 (the “Maturity Date”). At the option of each Note holder, the principal amount of the Note (plus accrued but unpaid interest) is convertible into shares of Common Stock (the “Note Shares”) at any time prior to the Maturity Date at an initial conversion price of $0.125 (which may be subject to certain adjustments as set forth in the Notes). The Notes will rank senior to all other unsecured debt of the Company.

The Warrants are exercisable into shares of Common Stock (the “Warrant Shares”) at an initial exercise price of $0.125 (which may be subject to certain adjustments as set forth in the Warrants). The Warrants have a five-year term and expire on October 31, 2014.

Syndicated Capital, Inc., a FINRA member firm, acted as placement agent (the “Placement Agent”) in connection with the private placement, and received $125,000 in commissions and $25,000 representing a non-accountable expense fee. The Company also will issue to the Placement Agent five-year warrants to purchase up to 150,000 shares of the Common Stock at an initial exercise price of $0.25 per share of Common Stock.

The Company has agreed to provide registration rights such that if the Company elects in the future to register additional shares of Common Stock, the Note Shares and the Warrant Shares issuable to holder of the Notes and the Warrants hereunder shall be included in such registration, subject to standard and customary cutbacks and lock-up provisions.

The Units sold were not registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Act”) in reliance upon the exemption from registration contained in Section 4(2) of the Act and Regulation D promulgated thereunder. The Units may not be reoffered or sold in the United States by the holders in the absence of an effective registration statement or exemption from the registration requirements of the Act.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds of the private placement for general corporate purposes, including the acquisition of physician practices, repayment of existing debt and the funding of the Company’s working capital needs.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On October 19, 2009, the Company filed a press release (the “Press Release”) announcing completion of the private placement. A copy of the Press Release is filed as an exhibit to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Apollo Medical Holdings, Inc. Announces Completion of $1.25 Million Private Placement of Convertible Notes

Glendale, California, October 16, 2009 – Apollo Medical Holdings, Inc. (OTC-BB:AMEH), a leading provider of management services to medical groups that provide comprehensive hospital-based medical services, today announced that it has completed the sale of convertible notes and warrants through a private placement offering.

In connection with the private placement, the Company will receive gross cash proceeds of $1.25 million.

“We have successfully implemented our plan to strengthen the Company’s balance sheet,” stated Warren Hosseinion, M.D., Chief Executive Officer of Apollo Medical Holdings, Inc. “With this new funding and continued improvement in our overall financial performance, we are now well positioned to achieve our strategic goals.”

Apollo intends to use net proceeds from the offering for physician recruitment and start-up expenses related to new contracts, marketing, upgrading of its proprietary web-based ApolloWeb software, repayment of debt and to support general operations.

The convertible notes and warrants are convertible into shares of Apollo’s common stock at an initial price of $0.125 per share. The 10% notes will mature on January 31, 2013.

Syndicated Capital, Inc., based in Santa Monica, California, acted as the exclusive placement agent for the transaction.

About Apollo Medical Holdings, Inc.

Apollo Medical Holdings, Inc. is a leading provider of management services to medical groups that provide hospital-based medical services. Apollo intends to capitalize on the growing market for hospital-based physicians, such as hospitalists, or physicians with expertise in hospital medicine. There are 4900 acute care hospitals in the U.S., with over 35 million annual admissions. Total U.S. spending on hospital care is over $650 billion dollars, and is expected to increase to $1.3 trillion by 2016. There are tremendous inefficiencies in the delivery of inpatient care as well as a high rate of hospital errors. Both of these are drivers for the growth of hospital-based medicine. Apollo and its affiliated medical groups have proven expertise in providing excellent and efficient care to hospitalized patients.
